

Finland: Land of a Thousand Lakes

Finland, a Nordic country in Northern Europe, is renowned for its stunning natural beauty, high quality of life, and innovative technology sector. Bordered by Sweden, Norway, and Russia, Finland boasts vast forests, numerous lakes, and the enchanting Northern Lights.

Key Features

- Education: World-class education system
- Technology: Home to tech giants like Nokia
- Nature: 188,000 lakes and extensive forests
- Culture: Sauna tradition and vibrant design scene

Statistics

Statistic	Value
Population	5.5 million
Capital	Helsinki
Official Languages	Finnish, Swedish
Area	338,455 km ²
GDP (nominal)	$269 billion
Human Development Index	0.938 (Very High)
Life Expectancy	81.7 years
Literacy Rate	100%

Finland consistently ranks among the happiest countries in the world, known for its high standard of living, social welfare system, and commitment to sustainability. From the bustling capital of Helsinki to the serene Lapland in the north, Finland offers a unique blend of modernity and natural wonder.